Prayer for the Week

Dear Father, the hurtful things that people say hurt me deeply. When their words wound me, remind me that I am yours and that you love me just as I am. Remind me that I am pleasing in your sight. Remind me that I am in your hands. Heal the scars in my heart from their words with healing of your Word. Amen.

NOTE FROM PRINCIPAL SCHAPEKAHM

Dear Parents,

St. Philip's Lutheran School is going through an accreditation process to validate our current work and improve our efforts going into the future. Our faculty and staff have been working on a number of "Standards" to look at where we currently are in matters such as curriculum and instruction, school climate, school relationships with families, our school's mission, and so on.

We will have a team of accreditation visitors here at St. Philip's in mid-March 2018. These are well-educated and highly-experienced leaders from different Lutheran Schools, and their observations of our school and classrooms will be very valuable for us in this process.

During March 12, 13 and 14, members of this visitation team will be here at St. Philip's, and they will stop and talk to you as parents. They also will chat with any number of our school children. They will be asking general questions about St. Philip's. We want you to know, in advance, who these gentlemen are and what they are doing when they are walking around before, during, and after school. Please feel free to greet them and chat with them, and by all means please answer them openly and honestly.

If you have any questions or concerns about this accreditation process, or what the members of the accreditation visiting team will be doing, please free to contact me, Pastor Kimbrough, your child's teacher, or Mrs. Allard.

Thanks for your awareness of this!

In Christ,
Jason Schapekahm, Principal
St. Philip's Lutheran School

We had over 115 applications verified and accepted during the first enrollment period. Steps on how to enroll can be picked up from the school office.
